BRING YOUR GAME

SOUVENIR PROGRAM : DECEMBER 1-9, 2018

2018 Florida Senior Games Completes Four-Year Run in Clearwater and Pinellas County

The 2018 Florida Senior Games, presented by Humana, came to a close on Sunday, December 9, at 7:02 p.m., at the North Greenwood Recreation Center when Bob Gill, of Weeki Wachee, and Michael Goodrich, of St. Joseph, Mich., defeated Steve Arlen, of Kissimmee, and John Trafalski, of Hernando, 11-5, 11-5, to win the Men's Doubles Pickleball Gold Medal in the 75-79 age group.

When the final gold medals were presented to Gill and Goodrich, it brought the nine days of the 27th Annual Florida Senior Games to a conclusion, where over 2,500 athletes, age 50 and over, competed in 25 sports. The City of Clearwater and Pinellas County hosted the Games from 2015 through 2018.

A closer look at the numbers involved in the annual Olympic-style Sports Festival finds, 47 of 50 states were represented, with exceptions being Idaho, Montana, North Dakota. Eight total countries were represented (USA, Barbados, Canada, Cayman Islands, Netherlands, Slovakia, United Kingdom, US Minor Islands) and athletes from 262 Florida cities traveled to Clearwater for the Games.

Harrison Wins with Paddles in Two Sports

Deb Harrison, of The Villages, wrapped up six days of events winning her third Pickleball gold medal of the 2018 Games teaming with Ruth Weil, also from The Villages, to win the Women's Doubles 70-74 age group. Since 2005, Harrison has won a total of 31 gold medals in Women's Singles and Doubles and Mixed Doubles.

Harrison (at left) and Ernie Tomlinson, also of The Villages, advanced through the 16-team, 65-69 age group bracket, to win the gold medal for the third time in four years. Harrison and Tomlinson were undefeated in four matches and defeated Mary Ann Charmoz, of Dunedin, and Dennis Sweeney, of Largo, 11-5, 11-3 in the final match.

It was Harrison's 13th mixed doubles gold medal dating back to 2004. After winning the Women's Singles gold medal, the victory marked the third different age group she has won a gold medal. The 2018 Women's Singles championship was her eighth overall women's singles title since 2005.

Earlier in the week, Harrison won Table Tennis medals in Mixed Doubles and Women's Singles and Doubles.

Kaye plays on Open and Confined Courts

Tobias Kaye, of Boca Raton, and Rick Owen, of Boyne City, Mich., advanced out of the 18-team Pickleball Men's Doubles 65-69 age group bracket, winning five matches. The duo was pushed to three games in both the semifinal and final matches and they defeated Ed Falkenberg and Rick Johnson, Jr., of Ill., in the championship match 4-11, 11-3, 12-10.

Kaye also won bronze medals in Racquetball during the first weekend of the Florida Senior Games in the 65-69 age group and a gold in Men's Singles in 2016. He competed in Men's and Mixed Doubles pickleball in the 2017 Games and did not earn a medal.

Rain, Rain Went Away and Athletes Ran to Finish Line

With an hour and a half of morning rain to start the final day of the Games, the start time of the Track and Field running events was delayed until 11:45 a.m. and all races were completed by 4:00 p.m. at Clearwater High School.

A total of 12 age group records were set, with nine coming in women's sprint races, four in the 50-meter dash, four in the 100-meter dash and one in the 200-meter. Johnnie Reid, of Naples, set new marks in the 55-59 age group with a 50-meter time of 7.59 and a 100-meter time of 14.15. Jane Barnes, of Raleigh, N.C., was the only other woman to set two new records with a dash of 8.34 in the 50 meter and a time of 15.58 in the 100 meter.

Mary Kemp (at left), of Boca Raton, set the 95-99 age group record in the 200-meter dash with a time of 2:13.32. She is the first woman to ever compete in the age group in the 27 years of the Florida Senior Games.

Alan Wells, of Inverness, set a new record in the 800-meter run with a time of 2:17.34, 23 seconds ahead of the second-place finisher in the age group. Wells now holds the 800-meter run records in the 50-54 and 55-59 age groups.

The 2015 FSG Female Athlete of the Year, Danuta Kubelik, of Crystal River, ran in all five races (100, 200, 400, 800 and 1500 meters), winning gold medals in the 70-74 age group. She also won a gold medal in the 5K Road Race the previous day.

Georgia Team Finds the Net in Florida

In Basketball action at Highland Recreation Center, the Georgia Boys, scored 97 or more points in each of their four games en route to the gold medal in the 60-64 age group. They defeated FL/GA Line 97-39 in the Championship Game and won their four games by an average margin of 53 points.

The Broward Heat Women's 55-59 team was undefeated in four games to win the gold medal. The Heat topped Second Wind, of Reno, Nev., 65-38 in the championship game. Ida Montgomery led the Heat with 19 points in the championship game and totaled 98 points in all four games.

Volleyball Teams Enjoy New Clearwater Area Facility

The Sugar and Spikes Women's Volleyball team, from Canada, was undefeated in three pool play matches at Morningside Recreation Center and two bracket play games to win the 55+ Gold Medal. Sugar and Spikes defeated the Stingers, from Bristol, Va., 25-11, 25-16, in the Championship match.

In the Men's Volleyball division, the Spikers, from Palm Harbor, were undefeated in four pool play matches to win the 50+ age group gold medal for the second consecutive year.

Rack 'Em and Break 'Em

Lonnie McNew, of Ocala, closed out the weekend with a pair of Billiards gold medals, winning the Eight Ball competition Saturday and the Eight Ball Doubles event on Sunday. He teamed with Dan Newby for the doubles gold.

It was McNew's first Eight Ball gold medal and his second Eight Ball Doubles gold medal. He also won two Nine Ball gold medals in 2016 and 2017.

Of the 35 players on the tables playing Nine Ball on the first day of competition, three carried the same last name. Bond Thornton, of Tallahassee, played with his sons Bruce and Eric.

While attending Florida State University, following a stint in the military service, Thornton worked at the University's student union bowling alley, which also had pool tables. His sons tagged along with their dad and developed a talent for the game as well.

Bruce and Eric tied for third place in the 50-54 age group and Bond competed in a six-person pool in the 75-79 age group.

Race Walker Celebrates Anniversary of Becoming An Amputee with Gold Medal Performance

Day eight of the 2018 Florida Senior Games, presented by Humana, got off to a big start at Crest Lake Park in Clearwater with a milestone anniversary of a race walker and some exciting finishes on foot and on bicycles.

Gary Bertelsen, of New Smyrna Beach, crossed the finish line with a gold medal winning time of 33:30.50 in the 70-74 age group, on a prosthetic left leg, on the 30th anniversary of becoming an amputee. He had a "deer hunting accident in Wisconsin," in November of 1979 and had his left leg amputated above the knee, the following month, on December 8.

He admitted after the race that "running as an amputee kicks your butt," even though he was a runner until three years ago and even ran in the New York City Marathon in 1995.

"I entered a race walk competition by accident," he said. "I thought it was a 5K running race but found out otherwise. It made me learn how to race walk. I watched some videos before the race to learn the rules and now I love it."

It was his first participation in the Florida Senior Games and also won a gold medal in the 1500-meter Race Walk with a time of 9:42.

Naples Couple Take Top 5K Road Race Time Awards

Taking off 10 minutes before the Race Walkers, the husband and wife team of Edward and Angela Blankenship (at left), of Naples, turned in the 5K Road Race top overall men's and women's times and earned gold medals in the 50-54 age groups. Edward was the first overall finisher with a time of 17:51.10 and Angela crossed the finishing line at 25:42.10.

Edward's run to the finish line did not come easy as the top three overall finishers were 14 seconds apart and Derek Larner, from Grand Cayman, was just over a second behind Blankenship.

"It was very close," Blankenship said. "We kept swapping the lead. I led the first mile, he may have led the second mile, and the guy who came in third (Thomas Hampton, of Miami) led for a while. I surged forward with just a little bit left in the course. It was pretty close the whole way."

Angela's top female time was 17 seconds ahead of the silver medalist in the 50-54 age group, Roberta Meyer.

Veteran Cyclists Maneuver Downtown Clearwater Roadways for Gold

Across the way on Cleveland Avenue, there were more close finishes in the 20K and 40K Cycling Road Races. Kathy Petrillo, of Jupiter, who was the 2016 FSG Female Athlete of the Year, and Pete Butler, of Tallahassee, were the top finishers but each of their gold medals were decided by a second or less.

Petrillo and Kay Carver, of The Villages, were neck and neck at the finish line with Petrillo holding a 3/100 of a second advantage in the 20K Race and a 2/100 of a second lead in the 40K Race.

Butler's 20K time of 33:00.54 nudged Kevin Clark, of Miami, with a time of 33:01.45. In the 40K, the difference between the two was 2/100 of a second.

Two days earlier, cyclists on finely engineered bicycles rode for top Time Trials marks at one of Florida's top beach destinations. On the roads of Fort DeSoto, with the Gulf of Mexico a few hundred yards away, Patrick Bohan, of Buena Vista, Colo., and Petrillo, proved themselves as the fastest riders in the 5K and 10K Time trials turning in the top overall times in both races.

Bohan had the best men's times with a 6:57 in the 5K Time Trials and a 13:50 in the 10K. Petrillo pedaled to a top time of 7:40 in the 5K and 14:44 in the 10K.

Petrillo holds the 50-54 and 55-59 age group records in both the 5K and 10K Time Trials and upped her gold medal total to 15 since 2012.

While Bohan and Petrillo may have posted the top overall times, William Otto, of Coral Springs, set new records in the 85-89 age group that had stood for 20 years. His time of 9:35 in the 5K topped the previous record by 38 seconds and 18:44 in the 10K was 1:33 faster than the previous mark. Both of the previous records were set by Brian McGrath, of St. Petersburg, in 1999.

Perfection from the Charity Stripe

Ronn Wyckoff, of Sarasota, was a perfect 30 for 30 in the Basketball Shooting Free Throw event, at Highland Recreation Center, to win the 75-79 age group gold medal. He edged Harry Carothers, of Pinellas Park, who hit 29 of 30. It was the second time Wyckoff recorded the perfect score at the Florida Senior Games, as he accomplished the feat in 2015.

Chris Evans, of The Villages, had the highest women's Free Throw Shooting total, hitting 24 of 30 from the line. It was her third consecutive gold-medal winning performance in the 65-69 age group.

In the Spot Field Goal Shooting, Garland Reynolds, of Frostproof, hit all 15 shots of the competition to win the 65-69 age group gold medal. Reynolds hit all five shots from different places on the court in all three rounds.

In the Timed Field Goal Shooting, William Oliver, of Reunion, hit 24 three pointers and an outside shot for a total of 122 points to win the 65-69 age group gold medal.

Laura Fowle, of Brooksville, had the highest women's point total with 108 points, hitting 20 three pointers.

Tiny Cazal Jumps and Throws Heavy Objects in Record-Breaking Performances

Of the 12 age group records broken in Field Events of the Track and Field competition, Madelaine "Tiny" Cazal, broke three in the 80-84 age group records with a long jump of 8 feet 10.5 inches, a shot put of 23 feet, 3.5 inches, and a discus throw of 65 feet, two inches. The 2003 FSG Female Athlete of the Year, Cazal, from The Villages, topped her own discus throw record, set last year, by 13 feet, and she now holds 10 field event records in the 70-74, 75-79 and 80-84 age groups.

Troy Bellrichard, of Spring Valley, Minn., set a new record in the 50-54 age group with a Discus Throw of 152 feet, seven inches. He broke the previous mark, set in 1998, by Bruce Hedendal, of Delray Beach, by over nine feet.

Playing That Pickleball

Florida Senior Games Pickleball continues to grow and become more competitive as over 350 players, were in action on 10 courts at the North Greenwood and Ross Norton Recreation Center, over the course of four days. After singles competition on the first of four days, a total of 65 mixed doubles teams, 75 men's doubles teams, and 55 women's doubles teams, fought their way through crowded brackets for medals and the opportunity to advance to the 2019 National Senior Games.

Gary Miller, of The Villages, and Steve Wojcik, of Naperville, Ill., won their fourth consecutive men's doubles gold medal in the 60-64 age group. They defeated Paul Cash, of The Villages, and Doug McClintlock, of St. Augustine, in the championship match.

Erica Gonzalez, of Poinciana, had a sweep of all three competitions winning the 50-54 age group Women's Singles Gold medal and teamed with Eric Kennedy, of Englewood, to win the 13-team mixed doubles bracket in the 50-54 age group.

Finally, Gonzalez and her Women's Doubles partner, Sylvia Whitehouse, of Palm Coast, won their fourth consecutive gold medal in the 50-54 age group. The pair also won a gold medal at the 2017 National Senior Games.

Three men's singles players repeated as gold medalists in their age group. Doug McClintlock, of St. Augustine, won the 60-64 age group for the second consecutive year, Doug Hastings, of Alexandria, Va., repeated in the 65-69 age group and Gabriel Wong, of Ponte Vedra Beach, repeated as the 70-74 age group gold medalist.

Throw Some More Weight on That Bar

Among those Powerlifting at the Safety Harbor Recreation Center, Ellen Stein, from Brooklyn, N.Y., won the Best Overall Lifter, with a women's overall best total of 992 pounds (198 lb bench press, 358 lb squat and 435 lb deadlift). She was the lone lifter in the 65-69 age group.

Stein started powerlifting in her 40s and has now been stepping up to the bar for over 20 years. She regularly cites, "You're never too old to start something new and you are never too old to keep going."

Sam Beckwith, of Lakeland, won the Best Male Overall Lifter with the men's overall best total lift of 1,758 pounds (485 lb bench press, 611 lb squat and 661 lb deadlift), winning a gold medal in the 50-54 age group.

Beckwith was one of only four male powerlifters to eclipse the 1000 pound mark. The other three were Edward Perez III, in the 50-54 age group with 1,019 pounds, Glenn Pedreira, in the 60-64 age group with 1,102 pounds and Larry Grant, also in the 60-64 age group with 1,328 pounds.

Beckwith increased his total from the 2017 games by more than 100 pounds, as he combined to lift 1,653 pounds in 2017.

The powerlifters, ranging in age from 50 to 84, who competed at the Safety Harbor Community Center combined to lift over 15 tons, 30,482 pounds of weights on the bar in all three events (bench press, squat and deadlift). A pair of 80-84 age group lifters, Robert Cseh and Bill Tinkler, each had successful bench presses of more than 150 lbs. Tinkler bench pressed 159 pounds while Cseh had a bench press of 181 lbs.

Florida Senior Games gets Gulf War Veteran Out Back Outdoors

From Monday, December 3 through Saturday, December 8, Calvin Lawrence, from Lake Alfred, was out and about competing in four sports of the 2018 Florida Senior Games.

Lawrence is a military veteran who suffered from PTSD after the Gulf War. He said after pitching horseshoes at Ed C. Wright Park, he “stayed indoors” for three years after serving his country.

Competing in Senior Games events has brought him back out and is once again a very outgoing person. He’s in the 55-59 age group and said there’s not enough folks for him to play against. He was in four different sports (Bag Toss, Horseshoes, Table Tennis, and Track and Field).

Lawrence’s medal total consisted of a silver medal in Horseshoes, a bronze medal in Bag Toss.

“I need some people to come out and play with me and compete against me,” he said.

Humana Game Changer Claudette Braswell Uses Focus and Accuracy to Win FSG Gold

On the seventh of nine days of the 2018 Florida Senior Games, presented by Humana, athletes were busy hurling horseshoes across the court hoping to hear the clank of the iron post for a ringer at Ed C. Wright Park.

After rolling 21 Sunshine Balls, in a competition creating healthy food snacks, among the Humana Game Changers Wednesday night at the Celebration of Athletes, Claudette Braswell, of Lake Wales, won the Horseshoes Women’s 80-84 age group gold medal with a 48.3 ringer percentage. In 60 throws, she had 29 ringers.

Her total was the second-highest percentage, behind Carl Nordquist, of Lake Wales, who hit 48 ringers in 90 throws for a 53.3 ringer percentage, to win the Men’s 80-84 gold medal.

It was Braswell's 11th consecutive Horseshoes gold medal since 2008. Her Sunshine Balls rolling effort from the previous night earned a charitable contribution to the Lake Wales Care Center of $6,100.

In the 2018 Florida Senior Games, Braswell focused on sports involving focus and accuracy. In her competition in Horseshoes, Basketball Shooting and Bag Toss, she aims for a stationary target of a range of sizes, at a variety of distances, with different objects.

"When I'm competing, I have an inner peace and calm through my faith, that helps me with my focus," she said. "I also exercising and stretch when I'm sitting out between games to also help me focus and stay calm. When I get back to pitching or shooting, I have a slow, relaxed and smooth delivery."

She won gold medals in in Basketball Shooting Free Throw, Spot Shooting and Timed Field Goal Shooting, winning her 15th Free Throw Shooting gold medal in 16 years dating back to 2003. During the long run of gold medals, Braswell's total of made free throws has never dropped below 20, for a 66.7% accuracy rate. Her best effort came in 2008 when she hit 27 of 30 free throws.

She is also a regular gold medalist in the Basketball Shooting events because of a three-day-a-week practice schedule on a local basketball court.

"About two months before the Senior Games, I begin practicing on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 6:30 to 9:00 a.m.," Braswell said. "Then I pitch horseshoes twice a week with a local club."

Her focus and determination are what earned her the 2007 Florida Senior Games Athlete of the Year and the Humana Game Changer honor in 2018.

Celebrating the Senior Athletes

The sixth day of competition ended with the Celebration of Athletes at The Long Center in Clearwater where a group of athletes were recognized for their dedication to athletics and fitness. Athletes in attendance were treated to music, food, and fellowship in a gymnasium transformed into an elegant reception area.

Four Humana Game Changers were honored at the Celebration of Athletes and took part in a No Bake, Bake Off where Leurene Hildenbrand, of Pinellas Park; Karen Westermann, of St. Petersburg; James White of Naples; and Claudette Braswell, of Lake Wales, rolled healthy snack ball for five minutes to determine a winner.

In the end, with a total of 21 Sunshine Balls rolled, Claudette Braswell topped Westermann's 14, Hildenbrand's 13 and White's 12. White won a Men's Singles Pickleball gold medal in the 90-94 age group before coming to the Celebration to be recognized and compete.

For their efforts, the Game Changers earned contributions local food organizations. Braswell's winning total earned $6,100 for the Care Center of Lake Wales ($100 for each of the 21 treats made and an additional $4,000 from Humana).

Leurene Hildenbrand, of Pinellas Park, competed for the Akron/Canton, Ohio Regional Food Bank, Karen Westermann, of St. Petersburg, received a contribution to Feeding Tampa Bay and James White, of Naples, rolled Sunshine Balls for St. Vincent DePaul's Society.

Also recognized were the 2017 Florida Senior Games Athletes of the Year, Carol Teel, a bowler from The Villages and Mike Welter, a pickleball player from Cape Coral.

Bending the Lawn Bowls

In the Lawn Bowls competition at the Clearwater Lawn Bowls and Shuffleboard Club, Sandy Wall and Cathy Mills, of Clearwater, won the gold medal, while Arthur Allen and Dave Murray, took the silver. Allen and Murray have medaled in each of the four years Lawn Bowls has been held in the Games in Clearwater. Taking the bronze medals were Duncan Farrell and Alice Dunkley while Cindy Higgins and Bob Fladung were the fourth-place finishers.

Mixed Doubles Tennis Gives Married Couples an Outlet for Competition together

Multiple gold medal winners, Judi and Aubrey Whitaker, of Lake Wales, were paired on the courts, in mixed doubles against another couple, Michelle and Julian Rainwater, of Ponte Vedra Beach, who were making their first appearance in FSG mixed doubles.

While the Whitaker's have played tennis together throughout their marriage and have FSG experience dating back to 2010. The Rainwater's combined have over 100 years of athletic competition experience as Julian was a high school and college athlete and Michelle has spent most of her life on the courts.

"This is going to be the toughest opening round match we've ever played," said Aubrey Whitaker, prior to the match, making note of Julian Rainwater's men's singles gold medal a few days earlier.

Whitaker correctly foresaw the future as he and Judi, won a tough, one hour and 40-minute, two set match 6-3, 7-6, with the final game being won, 10-8 in a USTA Coman set tie break.

After the Whitaker's won the first set, the Rainwater's held a 4-3 lead, halfway through the second set. The Whitaker's took the next two games and rallied from a 40-15 deficit to tie the set at 5-5. Things went back and forth to a 6-6 tie.

In the final tie breaking game to seven while winning by two points, the Whitaker's took a 5-1 lead before the Rainwater's scored the next five points to take a 6-5 lead.

Again, points went back and forth until an 8-8 tie and as Michelle Rainwater passed an exhausted Aubrey Whitaker during a side switch, she smiled and said, "C'mon, this is fun."

The Whitaker's scored the tie breaker's last two points with the final point coming on a shot deep in the corner from Aubrey, which Julian was unable to return over the net.

The competitive nature of all four players was on display as each team scored points on well-placed and well-timed sharp shots past each other and finding open spots on the court to drop a shot. After many of those scoring shots, there was mutual respect and sportsmanship on display as compliments were passed back and forth over the net.

Julian was a high school and collegiate track and field athlete who attended Wake Forest University as a member of the track and field and football teams. He registered to compete in track and field events at Clearwater High School but did not return for the Long Jump and Pole Vault on Saturday and the 50- and 100-meter dashes on Sunday.

It was his track and field experience that got him started playing tennis at the age of 40. "I could get the ball really quick," he said. "Then I need to learn how to be a tennis player."

His wife, Michelle, has been playing tennis since the age of 14 and has played recreationally all of her life. “When I’m on the courts, I’m not a wife, a mother, or a female,” she said. I’m a player.”

Aubrey Whitaker was a basketball coach at Lake Wales High School and Lake Highland Prep, in Orlando, but on the courts, it’s Judi who calls the shots for the team that competes in Husband/Wife Combo Tournaments around the country.

In the final day of six days of Tennis matches at Innisbrook Resort and Gold Club, Jeff and Ann Winkler, of St. Petersburg, won the 60-64 age group gold medal for the second time in three years. The Winklers defeated Pauline Stropp and Donald Schadt, of The Villages, 6-1, 6-1, in the championship match.

On Men’s and Women’s Doubles Tennis Championship Day at Innisbrook Resort and Golf Club, Jay Bortner & Barry Shollenberger, of Valrico, won their third consecutive men’s doubles tennis gold medal in 2018 and fourth in five years in 70-74 age group.

Bortner and Shollenberger defeated Fred King and Richard Scott in the championship match 6-3, 1-6 and 11-9 in the tiebreaker game. Bortner has won men’s doubles medals every year since 2010, in the 70-74 and 65-69 age groups, and teamed with Shollenberger to win gold in 2010, 2014.

Earl Harry, of Davenport, and Barry Recht (at left), of Auburndale, defeated Jim Norfolk, of Kissimmee, and Thomas Waye, of Poinciana, 6-1, 6-2, in the Men’s 60-64 age group final.

“The score did not indicate how close the match really was,” said Harry. “There were a lot of long games that went to deuce. We had some good shots after some long volleys.”

Both Norfolk and Waye competed in Men’s Singles and Norfolk won a bronze medal in the 60-64 age group. He also won the 60-64 Men’s Singles silver medal at the 2017 Games.

A pair of long-time medal winners continued their winning ways in Men’s and Women’s Singles Tennis as Martha Poitevent, of St. Augustine and Barry Shollenberger, of Valrico won their respective championship matches.

Poitevent won her seventh consecutive Women’s Singles gold medal, in the 70-74 age group, dating back to the 2012 Games. She defeated Joanne Collier, of Mulberry, 6-0, 6-2 in the championship match. Shollenberger won his second gold in three years in the 75-79 age group, defeating Bob Mason, of Dewey, Okla., 6-1, 6-2, in the final.

The Difference A Single Stroke Makes on the Golf Course

On the final day of 36-hole golf, the Men's 60-64 age group was determined by a USGA Tie-Breaking procedure while the Men's 70-74 and Women's 65-69 age group medal winners were one stroke apart.

Martin Black, of Clearwater, held a two-stroke lead over Broward Sapp after Tuesday's round with a score of 80 over Sapp's 82. On Wednesday, Sapp carded an 85 to Black's 87. The USGA tiebreaker, in a 36-hole play, awards the lowest score over the last 18 holes, thereby giving Sapp the gold medal, with a two-day score of 167.

In the 70-74 age group, Ed Hoover, of Tallahassee, held on to his one stroke lead from Tuesday, as both he and Nick Kent, of The Villages, shot a 79 on Wednesday. Hoover won the gold medal with a two-day score of 153, while Kent shot a 154 and Tom Buck, of Indian Rocks Beach, took the bronze with a 155.

"I hit fairways and greens all day," said Hoover, who was the manager at Tallahassee's Killearn Country Club from 1997-2003. "My nickname is Steady Eddie. I had 15 pars. I played my game today (Day One)."

Hoover, who played in his first Florida Senior Games, faced tough conditions when he qualified at the Capital City Senior Games, in Tallahassee. In the March qualifier, the day started out with rain and 40-degree weather.

Debra Whipkey, of Pensacola, held on to top Diane Zaring, of Ponte Vedra Beach, by one stroke to win the Women's 65-69 gold medal. Her four-stroke lead heading into Wednesday's play was just enough as Zaring shot a second day score of 89 to Whipkey's 92.

Whipkey also won a gold medal at the 2017 National Senior Games with a three-day score of 255. She shot an 87, 83 and 85 and won the 60-64 age group gold medal by two strokes.

The Streak Continues for John Shultz

For the 26th consecutive year, a Table Tennis medal was placed around the neck of Sarasota's John Shultz. He has been a medal winner at all but one of the Florida Senior Games, the inaugural 1992 Games.

Shultz, the 2009 Florida Senior Games Male Athlete of the Year, won the Men's Singles gold medal in the 80-84 age group and paired with Deane Chickering, of The Villages, to win the Men's Doubles gold in the same age group.

His streak began in 1993 while competing in the 55-59 age group, and Shultz has now won 15 Men's Singles gold medals in six age groups. He teamed with Chickering to win their sixth men's doubles gold medal since 2008.

The Sun City Center Women's Doubles team of Jan Cline and Audrey Columbia won their seventh consecutive gold medal and third straight in the 80-84 age group. Cline also extended her consecutive years medal winning streak to 25 years.

Florida Senior Games Table Tennis Welcomes Well-Traveled Paralympic Athlete

A Paralympic Athlete who has competed in Table Tennis competitions all over the world in destinations such as London, Venezuela, Slovenia and Brazil, only had to drive 40 miles to compete in the 2018 Florida Senior Games, presented by Humana.

Tara Profitt (at left), of Apollo Beach, competed in the 1984 and 2012 Paralympic Games and played in the 2009 and 2011 Para Pan Am Games. She had a fourth place Women's Singles finish in the 2011 Para Pan Am Games and won two silver medals in Women's and Mixed Doubles and a bronze Women's Singles in the 50-54 age group.

This is her fourth year of competing in a wheelchair at the Florida Senior Games and she has been a medalist in each of her appearances.

"I turned 50 and decided to give it a try," Profitt said. "All of the people here are young and there's a lot of good players."

Profitt broke her neck when diving into a swimming pool and hit the bottom when she was 13 years old. She has been active and involved in sports all of her life. With two brothers, she was involved in all of the sports they played.

"I was a tomboy," she said.

She began playing table tennis while in college at Central Connecticut State University and competed in the 1984 Paralympic Games. She "retired," from Table Tennis, after graduating from college like many Senior Games athletes, to begin a professional career in payroll services at a variety of companies over the years and to raise a family.

While Profitt has become a regular at the Florida Senior Games over the last four years, she is currently undecided on whether she will attempt to qualify for the 2020 Paralympics in Tokyo, with a performance at the 2019 Para Pan Am Games.

Among the other Table Tennis athletes competing Monday, Garth Jordan, of Tampa, Yujun Li, of Clearwater, and Joan Ruggeiro, of Jacksonville, scored a hat trick of gold medals winning in Singles, Doubles and Mixed Doubles. Ruggeiro won her fifth consecutive gold medal, and seventh overall since 2011. Today's win came in the 65-69 age group.

First Weekend of 2018 Florida Senior Games concludes with epic finish in Swimming Pool

Over the first weekend of competition in the 2018 Florida Senior Games, presented by Humana, over 800 athletes competed in eight sports in various locations in Clearwater and Pinellas County.

The Sunday of the first weekend of competition, saw a “Who’s Who” of Florida Senior Games swimming record-holders at The Long Center in Clearwater in the 200-yard intermediate medley 65-69 age group event.

When J. Nathan Leech, of The Villages; George Schmidt, of West Palm Beach; and Rudy Vazmina (pictured above), of Sarasota climbed onto the starting blocks, the trio brought with them a combined 17 record-setting performances over their years in the Florida Senior Games.

After the first 50-yard leg of the race, the Butterfly, George Schmidt held the lead followed by Rudy Vazmina and Nathan Leech. After the second leg, the Backstroke, Leech had moved into second place and closed the gap on Schmidt in the third leg, the Breaststroke.

Entering the final leg, the Freestyle, Schmidt held a slight lead over Leech. By the time the two made the turn for the final 25 yards to the finish line, they were even.

“He looked at me, and I looked at him and we were off,” said Leech.

At the finish line, Leech touched the pad at 2:35.98 and Schmidt was right behind at 2:36.27. Vazmina came in third with a time of 2:42.34

Over the weekend, the FSG Men’s Swimming elite combined for 16 medals, including nine gold medals. They have also won numerous medals at the National Senior Games.

Over two days and 17 events in men’s and women’s competition, 52 age group records were broken.

Salvatore Principe Joins a FSG Elite Bowling Club

Joining elite company as the newest member of the Florida Senior Games’ 300 Club, was Salvatore Principe, of Bradenton. Principe is the sixth member of the club and bowled a perfect game in his third and final game of Men’s Singles to win the 60-64 age group gold medal.

"It's ironic because my previous 300's were in the final game," Principe said. "In the earlier games today, there were a lot of high scores. The lanes were conducive to high scores."

Principe's 12th and final strike of the game came when he crossed over to what he the "Brooklyn side." Instead of hitting the right side of the head pin, it crossed over to the left side of the head pin.

"It was probably my worst shot of the day," he said. "I just got lucky that it went across and got it. When you bowl a 300 game, you've got to have some luck."

Principe grew up bowling in Brooklyn, N.Y., and in leagues as an adult in New Jersey had never bowled a perfect game. Since moving to Bradenton four years ago, he has rolled three. It was his second consecutive Men's Singles gold medal in the 60-64 age group.

The five other members of the FSG Perfect Game Club are Gerald Brunette, of Naples (2006), Richard Merrill, of The Villages (2010), Lawrence Draeger, of Pensacola (2011), Carol Teel, of The Villages (2012), and Gregory Lindsay, of North Fort Myers (2017).

After Men's and Women's Doubles, Mixed Doubles and Singles competition, Gregory Lindsay, of North Fort Myers, and Ginger Barbracovey, of Cantonment, earned the FSG Bowling Most Pins Award. Lindsay knocked down 2,031 pins along the way to a gold, silver, and bronze medal. Barbracovey, who won Women's Doubles gold, a Women's Singles silver, and had a fourth-place finish sent 1,998 pins to the floor.

At the Richey Racquet Club

Scott Reid, of Tampa, and Larry Ardito, of Bonita Springs, were double gold medal winners earning Men's Singles and Doubles Racquetball medals over the weekend at Richey Racquet.

Reid won the Men's Singles 50-54 division winning two matches Saturday, and teamed with Edward Powers, of Venice, to win four matches and earn the Men's Doubles 50-54 age group gold medals.

Ardito won the Men's Singles 70-74 age group on Saturday and won the Men's Doubles, with partner Gerald Goebel, of Jensen Beach, winning four matches in the 65-69 age group for the gold medal.

Prolific Shufflers Continue to Push Discs to Victory

Following the second day of competition at the Clearwater Lawn Bowls and Shuffleboard Complex, Linda Armstrong, of Lakeland, Donald Greenlee, of The Villages, and Paul Allaire, of Clearwater, picked up their second gold medals of the weekend.

Armstrong teamed with Carol Helfer, of The Villages, to win the 65-69 age group. Greenlee partnered with Paul Ayotte, also of The Villages, while Allaire and Pete Desjardins, of Safety Harbor, won their third consecutive gold medal in the 80-84 age group. Allaire, at 97 years old, had to play down two age groups to team with the younger Desjardins.

In singles competition, Henry and Linda Armstrong, of Lakeland, continued their gold medal winning ways. Linda won her 10th Women's Singles gold medal, dating back to 2007, in the 65-69 age group gold, and Henry claimed his 10th Men's Singles gold medal dating back to 2005 in the 70-74 age group.

The Games' Most Experienced Athlete, 97-year-old Paul Allaire, of Clearwater, won the gold medal in the 95-99 age group. Allaire is one of only 11 Florida Senior Games athletes to compete in the 95-99 age group in the 27 years of the Games.

Archery Arrows Flying Toward Targets

In what long-time Archery Sport Director Tim Austin called "difficult conditions with gusting winds," at the Joe DiMaggio Sports Complex, James Harden, of Ocala, turned in the top score of the day shooting an 875, of a possible 900, to win the Compound Release gold medal in the 55-59 age group.

The top women's performance came from Melanie White, of Weston, with a score of 859. Both Harden and White hold the top all-time scores in Florida Senior Games history as Harden shot an 891 of a the possible 900 in the 2011 Games Compound and Release event and White scored an 877 in the 2013 Games.

Another first-time Florida Senior Games participant, Tatyana Muntyan (pictured above), of Delray Beach, established an all-time high Women's Recurve record, with a score of 836, to win the 50-54 age group gold medal. Muntyan, currently a member of the U.S. National Team, Senior Division, competed for the Soviet Union at the Seoul 1988 Olympic Games.

The Art and Grace of Tai Chi

Clearwater's David Wong Yee won his third consecutive Men's Advanced Hand Form Gold Medals and Janet Montague, of Bradenton, won her third consecutive Women's Sword Advanced Gold Medal at the Countryside Recreation Center. Wong Yee and Montague are the only FSG Tai Chi athletes to have won gold medals in any category in all three years of Tai Chi competition in the Florida Senior Games.

Wong Yee also added a Weapons Advanced Gold Medal and a Sword Advanced gold medal.

Dominoes in Port St. Lucie

Joining the Florida Senior Games roster of events in 2018 was Dominoes, as it was contested at the St. Lucie Cricket & Sports Association, in Port St. Lucie. George Sherman won the tournament, which was based on the “accumulated scores principle,” applied throughout the tournament. All players competed in seven rounds during the day’s competition.

Ulerich Branch took second place, while Hermon Bent finished third and Owen Jureidini came in fourth place.

2019 and 2020 Florida Senior Games to be held in Broward County

The Florida Senior Games, presented by Humana, announced a two-year partnership with the Greater Fort Lauderdale Convention and Visitors Bureau as its host for the 2019 and 2020 Games.

The Games are Florida’s only Olympic-style sports festival for athletes age 50 and over. In 2019, the Florida Senior Games, presented by Humana, will field 24 sports over nine days, December 7-15.

“We are excited to partner with Greater Fort Lauderdale CVB and Broward County to host the 2019 and 2020 Florida Senior Games, presented by Humana,” said Marvin E. Green, Jr., VP of Amateur Sports and Events.

“Warm weather, coupled with a wealth of state-of-the-art facilities, tourist attractions, and housing options, makes this partnership a win-win. We look forward to having Floridians in the Broward County area that Bring Your Game, compete, and advocate for an active lifestyle in the later stages of life.”

The National Senior Games also tabbed the Greater Fort Lauderdale area as its host for the 2021 National Games. With the selection, Floridians and other competitors will have the opportunity to compete at facilities and venues that will be utilized throughout the Broward County area in the National Games during the 2019 & 2020 Florida Senior Games, presented by Humana.

Athlete returns to roots for Florida Senior Games

Nick Gandy

The last four years of the Florida Senior Games have been a homecoming for Doug Covert, a Tallahassee athlete, who has been a regular on the bowling lanes but laced up a different pair of shoes to compete on the track lanes in 2018.

Covert and his family moved to Dunedin when he was in fifth grade and is an alum of Dunedin High School. After graduating from Florida State in 1987, he returned to the Tampa Bay area where he met his wife, Lisa, and the couple moved back to Tallahassee where they have resided for more than 25 years.

It's the classic Senior Games athlete story. An athlete excels in a sport in their youth, becomes a successful professional in their field, raises a family and once the family grows up, they return to action.

For the last few years, Covert's success has been limited to rolling strikes at the bowling alley. In the 2018 Florida Senior Games, presented by Humana, he returned to the track for the 400-meter run.

On the first weekend of the Games, he turned in a milestone performance at the Seminole Lanes. He spent plenty of time on the lanes as a youth as his parents were league bowlers. He was in youth leagues and admits he was "well decorated," in the sport. He bowled on the FSU Intramural team as a student.

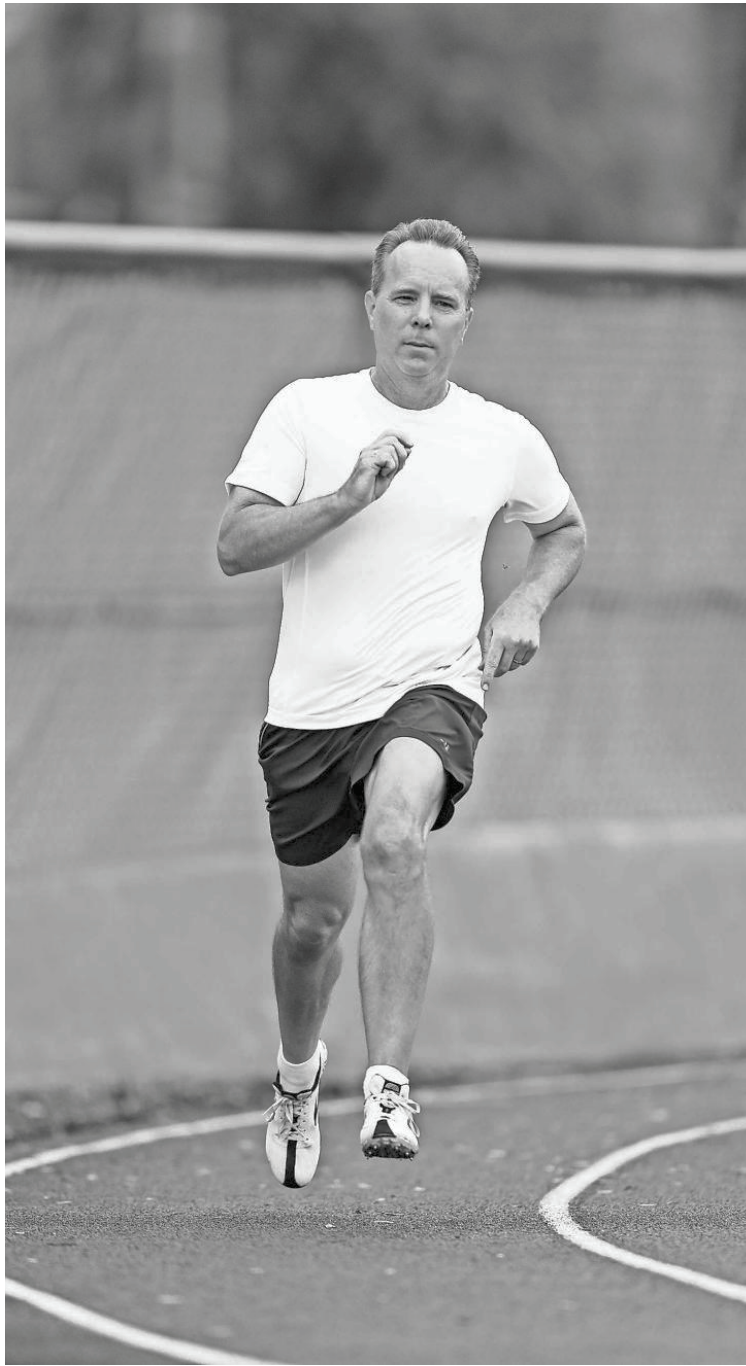

He has been bowling in the Capital City Senior Games since turning 50 and qualified for the four years in Clearwater. Covert earned a 2018 silver medal in Men's Singles, with a combined three-game score of 681, which included a personal best game of 289, in his first of three games. . .so close to a perfect game.

"I hit the first 10 strikes and the 11th was a good ball but it just didn't go," he said. "I left the 10 pin on my 11th roll and picked it up on the 12th for the 289."

The second weekend of the Games, he returned to Clearwater to a stadium where he competed with the Dunedin High School Track and Field team, "at least 10 or 12 times," in the early 1980s.

Running in the 50-54 age group of the Florida Senior Games, he ran the 400-meter dash in 1:06.42, for a sixth place finish in a very competitive field.

"I did better than I thought I would," he said after the race. "I'll just have to work harder for next year."

In his high school and college years, Covert ran the 400-meter dash in the area of 48 seconds. He also competed in Masters Track and Field events in his early 40s and made the full lap around the track in 57 seconds.

"My goal with training for next year is to lower my time to 60 seconds flat," he said. "I'll also move up into the 55-59 age group and I'll be the youngest in the age group. I think I can get there."

Father and son enjoy a 'game for life'

Nick Gandy

A term used in describing a handful of Florida Senior Games sports is, "It's a game for life." Translated, there's not many chances an athlete in that sport will sustain career-ending injuries.

The Florida Senior Games offers sports where athletes rely on the elements of focus, accuracy and strategy and not a lot of physical demands.

Such is the case with Florida Senior Games Billiards champion, Bond Thornton, of Tallahassee. Now competing in the 75-79 age group. Bond's talents for the game began in his youth and were honed during his college days at Florida State University. He enrolled in college in 1969, after serving time in the military.

In need of work, he knew exactly where to go, the Crenshaw Lanes Bowling Alley in the FSU Student Union. Besides bowling, it offered students, a side room with pool tables.

"I lived in the Alumni Village and got a job there as soon as I came to campus working 20 hours a week as the night manager," Thornton said.

The lure of the billiards tables also brought his two sons, Eric and Bruce, to Crenshaw Lanes to take advantage of the perks of their father's part time job.

"My brother and I would have been about 8 or 9 when dad was working there," said Eric. "We would go and play while he was working at night."

In the 2018 Florida Senior Games, Bond will be playing in the 75-79 age group while Eric and Bruce will be in the 55-59 age group.

Leading up to the 2018 Florida Senior Games, to be held December 1-9, in Clearwater and Pinellas County, Bond and Bruce, will sharpen their skills during their weekly pool night out, usually on a Friday night at a choice of local billiards establishments.

Eric, who lives in the Atlanta area, will join them December 7-9. During visits to Tallahassee, both sons join their dad for a night out shooting pool. Both Bond and Eric had the same sentiments about how the game brings their family together.

"It's a nice thing we can do together," they both said.

Over the years of raising his family and working as a contractor and as a Facilities Director for the Florida Department of Management Services, where he oversaw projects at the Governor's Mansion, Bond also spent time on local golf courses. However, nagging injuries have kept a billiards cue stick in his hands more than a golf club.

"Billiards is a nice individual sport," said Bond. "It takes a lot of concentration and skill. You learn that skill by playing a lot. But as you get older, you're not as good as you used to be."

That's the advantage of Senior Games competitions on local, state and national levels, according to Bond.

"The good thing about playing in the Senior Games is you're matched up with folks your own age," he said. "It's a lifetime sport. You see several people at the Senior Games in their 90s still playing. It's the same with golf, just not me any longer."

Bond and Bruce played in local leagues for a while but decided it took up too much of their time.

"We wouldn't get home until 1:00 in the morning," Bond said with a laugh. "Bruce had to get up and go to work in the morning."

The game hasn't changed much over the years for Bond Thornton, except now it's a family outing for him and his adult sons instead of them tagging along to Crenshaw Lanes.

The old bowling alley and pool tables of Crenshaw Lanes are no longer in the FSU Student Union, due to a $120 million renovation of the 50-year old facility. When it's done, it will be distinctly different than what the Thornton family knew in the early 1970s.

"I haven't been to Crenshaw Lanes in a few years but the last time I was there, it looked exactly the same as when I was in school," Bond said. "Except now they sell beer."

Senior Games Athlete Honed Basketball Skills in U.S. Air Force

Nick Gandy
Florida Senior Games

These days in basketball gyms around the country, Harry Carothers steps behind an arched line 19 feet and 9 inches away from a goal and launches a three-point satellite toward the basket. More times than not, he's successful.

His days of launching three-point satellites began long before he began competing in Florida Senior Games basketball shooting events in 1999. During a portion of his 28-year Air Force career, leading to retiring as a Colonel in 1993, he flew C-130 aircraft into small spots like a basketball hoop and was a member of teams that launched satellites from Delta II rockets.

His path to becoming a successful Air Force Colonel began during his college years at Lehigh University where all freshmen and sophomores were required to participate in Army or Air Force ROTC. After completing the mandatory two years of the program, Carothers continued in the program for his junior and senior years, and upon graduation, was commissioned into the Air Force as an officer.

"I knew I was going to be drafted by the Army once I finished college," Carothers said, "so I chose this Air Force program."

Prior to graduating in 1964, a new Air Force-funded flying program made possible a year of flying lessons for Carothers during his senior year. He showed his athletic prowess early and was one of only six candidates to pass the required Air Force physical exam to qualify for the program. After the lessons and a year of Air Force pilot training, Carothers became a C-130 airlift pilot.

"It was extremely versatile and fun to fly," he said. "Even though it was a big plane, it was made to land at small airfields, even on dirt runways. It was a very rugged airplane. It had anti-skid brakes which were new at the time but almost all cars have them now. When you flew into a small airfield, you applied full pressure on the brakes and pulled the throttles into full reverse to stop."

For two years, Carothers was stationed in Taiwan and flew missions into Vietnam to resupply Army and Marine ground troops, oftentimes taking on enemy fire.

"Sometimes we would fly in at 20,000 feet and spiral downward, rollout, and come around into some really small airstrips," Carothers describes in a calm, nonchalant voice. "It was really fun flying."

On one such mission, Carothers describes a dramatic story of turning the C-130 plane around for an emergency landing just after taking off over a trap set by enemy troops. As the aircraft was taking off and climbing over the end of the runway, machine gun fire from the ground began filling the bottom of the plane with holes. Carothers and his crew escaped injury because of the lead-lined seats equipped on the plane.

An empty, external fuel tank was hit and exploded. One engine quit operating and its propeller was feathered. With fumes still in the fuel tank, it caught on fire and the fire spread to the wing. Carothers and crew turned the C-130 around and landed at the airfield which was under attack. Once on the ground, the crew and passengers evacuated, and the airplane continued burning on the runway. Once the fire burned itself out, a bulldozer pushed the charred plane off the runway, allowing other flights to come and go.

After his service in Vietnam, Carothers was stationed in Hawaii for five years and flew classified C-130 missions to support satellite space missions related to intelligence gathering.

"It was highly classified stuff," he said. "It's not done any longer."

After 12 years of flying, he became involved in Air Force acquisition management, buying new airplanes from manufacturers like Lockheed-Martin and McDonnell-Douglas for the Air Force. Finally, he moved to Los Angeles where he became involved in Air Force Space Division programs. He became part of a team launching Delta II Rockets with GPS satellites into orbit. Carothers shared responsibility for 15 successful rocket launches at Cape Canaveral and served as media spokesperson for the first launch of a production GPS satellite.

He retired as a Colonel in 1993 and moved from the West Coast to the Tampa Bay area to be close to MacDill Air Force Base and his parents.

During his time in the military, Harry was always conscious of fitness. He spent time at the gym almost every day. Air Force personnel were given an annual fitness test where they were required to run one-and-a-half miles in a certain time, depending on their age. In Carothers' final test before retirement, he finished the one-and-a-half mile run within the required time for the fastest category of the youngest age group, under 10 minutes 15 seconds.

"I always encouraged others to focus on fitness and spend as much time in the gym as possible," he said. "If it took time out of their work in the middle of the day, I told them to make up the time missed at the end of the day."

Now competing in the 75-79 age group in the Florida Senior Games, he plays half-court, 3-on-3 basketball. When not in Florida Senior Games events, Carothers plays full court basketball with "players in their 20s and 30s, three times a week at the YMCA."

He has been competing in the Florida Senior Games Basketball Shooting competition since 1999 and as a member of the Clearwater Aces 3-on-3 team since 1998. Over the last 19 years, Carothers has collected 56 state championship gold medals. He has won the gold medal in his age group for Timed Field Goal Shooting – where athletes try to hit as many shots as possible in three one-minute periods – for 19 consecutive years.

Carothers, who specializes in the three-point shot, had a Florida Senior Games Time Field Goal Shooting record score in 2005 of 152. The score represented a total of 30 successful three pointers in three one-minute periods.

Given Carothers' prowess on the basketball court, Florida Senior Games Basketball Sports Director, Richard Blaylock, of Gainesville was unfazed when he found out the extent of his military service.

"It doesn't surprise me at all that Harry had such an interesting and successful career in the Air Force," said Blaylock, who has known Carothers for more than 10 years as an athlete. "The discipline it takes to be as successful as he was in the Air Force is a reason why he is still so active and successful in athletic competition. Every year, I make sure to go over any rule changes with him because he knows them better than anyone else playing. If I'm wrong on something, he'll call me out on it."

On Saturday, December 8, Carothers will be on the court at the Highland Recreation Center in Largo, launching three-point shots en route to what will certainly be a Florida Senior Games gold-medal winning performance.

BROTHER HONORS CAPTAIN JOE LYONS

*Sam Lyons
Bureau of Long-Term Care and Support
Florida Department of Elder Affairs*

My brother, Capt. Joe Lyons, is currently a pilot serving in the United States Air Force and is stationed in San Antonio, Texas, at Laughlin AFB. He is transitioning from the 69th Bomb Squadron at Minot AFB to the 87 Flying Training Squadron where he will be an instructor pilot in the T-38 jet. This is the jet trainer that students fly during their second half of the year of pilot training.

Joe graduated from the Brock School of Business at Samford University in the Spring of 2012 and was accepted into the Euro-NATO Joint Jet Pilot Training (ENJJPT) Program at Sheppard AFB in Wichita Falls, Texas. He holds an MBA from Texas A&M and a certificate in Nuclear Deterrence from Harvard University.

The past six years of experiences in the USAF led him to this assignment, and he was selected to become a B-52H pilot while in the ENJJPT Program. He moved to Shreveport, Louisiana (Barksdale AFB) for a year to learn to fly the BUFF (B-52). A year later, upon finishing the B-52 course he moved to Minot, ND, and joined his first operational squadron, the Fightin' 69th Bomb Squadron. Over the next four years, he deployed to Guam and Qatar, did short term training in Hawaii, Australia, and Vegas, conducted multiple nuclear exercises with real warheads, and flew missions into all four hemispheres. Here are highlights from those missions:

Northwestern: Canadian air defense penetration exercise where he simulated a hostile bomber approaching from the Arctic Circle.

Southwestern: Counter-narcotics mission in which he did a low pass over drug runners 300 miles out to sea. They threw $42M in cocaine overboard, which was recovered, and Joe and his crew directed the Coast Guard to their position.

Northeastern: Soon after the Chinese declared that the South China Sea was their sovereign airspace, Joe's unit flew two B-52s in formation overhead to let them know we did not agree with the Republic of China's position regarding airspace.

Southeastern: He did a formation flyover of the capital of Australia in honor of Vietnam veterans who had died in the battle of Long Tan 50 years prior. Some of the men on the ground who had survived said it was the first time they had heard or seen a B-52 since the battle 50 years ago.

Joe was deployed for nine months in Qatar and participated in Operation Inherent Resolve (US military's operational name for the military intervention against the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIL) and returned in April 2018. He is soon facing a promotion to the rank of major and has an opportunity to pursue a PhD in nuclear deterrence from Harvard University. The Air Force is encouraging and hoping that he takes the opportunity that Harvard has for him.

Joe married Alexis Marijanian on September 15, 2018, in Birmingham, Alabama, and honeymooned in Jamaica for two weeks of much-needed relaxation.

I am very fortunate to have a brother like Joe, and we are all fortunate that we have individuals such as he who protect our skies on a regular basis.

Hopefully FSU or the Jacksonville Jaguars will extend an invitation for him to fly over a game one day!

Senior Games give women the competition they were denied pre-Title IX

By Caitlin Johnston Tampa Bay Times Dec 16, 2018

Pickleball player Jimmi Symonds, 68, of East Palatka, Fla., returns the ball during the Florida Senior Games tournament Dec. 6 at Ross Norton Recreation Center in Clearwater, Fla.

Buy Now

Tribune News Service

CLEARWATER, Fla. — Jimmi Symonds, 68, stared down the court at her opponent, slowly turning the orange ball in her hand as she prepared to serve.

Barbara Reis, 66, had trounced Symonds in the last game. But now the two were tied in the final game of their pickleball match.

Symonds fired off her serve, and Reis flubbed the return, sending the ball wide and out of bounds.

"No, no, no," Reis said under her breath, slapping the paddle against her leg in frustration.

The match was part of the 2018 Florida Senior Games, which brought out nearly 2,600 athletes ranging in age from 50 to 97.

About 350 of them played pickleball, a fast-growing, hugely popular sport in senior communities. The smaller court, low net and relatively quick games make it more accessible for older athletes.

For some of the men, the tournament is a chance to channel the competitive edge they honed on basketball courts and baseball diamonds as young athletes so many years ago.

But for many of the female athletes here, the Florida Senior Games and similar tournaments offer a competitive outlet they didn't have access to growing up.

These women are part of the pre-Title IX era. Born in the 1930s through '60s, they didn't enjoy the benefits the gender equity law laid out for future generations, including their daughters and granddaughters, when it passed in 1972.

Take Tina Rosenquist, 65. The avid pickleball player loved sports as a young girl, including playing football with her brothers. But when it came time for school sign-ups, she and other girls were left with few options. Tennis and track were available, but not much else.

"I enjoyed all sports, but I was supposed to be in the kitchen learning to cook," Rosenquist said. "That was our generation."

Kathy Vollmer's true passion was basketball. But Vollmer, 66, didn't have the chance to play in school. If she and other girls wanted to shoot hoops, they had to scrounge together their own match-ups.

"We had to do our own thing and form our own games," Vollmer said of girls at the time. "There was nothing official. Title IX came about shortly after that."

The law changed everything for female athletes. That's why Rosenquist teared up when her daughter joined a girls hockey team in Minnesota many years later. Her daughter didn't quite understand the emotion, but to Rosenquist, it was a sign things really had changed for the next generation.

"We women have worked so hard for equal gender in sports," Rosenquist said. "We set the stage for you."

Now, those same women are clinching championships through opportunities like the senior games.

For many, sports like pickleball are a way to stay active and also keep an active social life after retirement. Friendships form on courts and span state lines. But despite how courteous the play is — "nice shot" and "good one" echo frequently in the gym — the competition is real.

"In our heads we're 35, and our bodies just scream at us," Vollmer said.

Reis, who lost her first match against Symonds, climbed her way up through the loser's bracket (called the opportunity bracket by some). She made the finals after four straight wins. Three hours in, her legs started to cramp. She lost the next point and slapped the paddle twice against her thigh.

"Stupid," she snapped at herself. "Stupid play."

Outwardly, Reis was one of the most competitive athletes on the court. She was quick to judge her play and vent her frustration. But she also was able to settle those nerves and get back in each game, calming her play and focusing on the next point.

She went on to win the gold medal.

Reis, who lives in Bradenton, happens to be one of the few women who had the opportunity to play team sports in high school and college.

She attended an all-girls Catholic school in Buffalo that fielded teams against other girls schools in the region.

"That was really good for me," Reis said. "I was lucky."

Reis joined the softball team, playing fast-pitch through high school and college. By that point, female collegiate sports were gaining traction but many programs were still in their infancy.

"Everything was just getting going," Reis said. "There were no scholarship opportunities for us. But we'd go on bus trips and eat out, and I thought that was a big deal."

In the years after, she pitched for a team in a Canadian-American league. The team traveled to Toronto and other big cities. Women's softball was much more popular in Canada than in the United States, she said.

She stopped pitching in her 30s, but kept active with other sports over the years. Racquetball was one of her favorites, until she found pickleball through an advertisement for free classes at the local library. She quickly took to the sport, which she found to be kinder on her body.

She competes frequently, entering tournaments all over the state. She won the AAU National Outdoor Pickleball Championship in Punta Gorda this month.

She's not sure how long she'll be able to keep playing, but she hopes her body allows her to keep competing for as long as she can.

"You figure everyone else is slowing down too," she said. "Hopefully it's at the same pace."

Senior Games give women the competition they were denied pre-Title IX

Tampa Bay Times - By Caitlin Johnston Tampa Bay Times

(December 11, 2018 9:46am)

Dec. 10-- CLEARWATER, Fla.-Jimmi Symonds, 68, stared down the court at her opponent, slowly turning the orange ball in her hand as she prepared to serve.

Barbara Reis, 66, had trounced Symonds in the last game. But now the two were tied in the final game of their pickleball match.

Symonds fired off her serve and Reis flubbed the return, sending the ball wide and out of bounds.

"No, no, no," Reis said under her breath, slapping the paddle against her leg in frustration.

The match was part of the 2018 Florida Senior Games, which brought out nearly 2,600 athletes ranging in age from 50 to 97.

About 350 of them played pickleball, a fast-growing, hugely popular sport in senior communities. The smaller court, low net and relatively quick games make it more accessible for older athletes.

For some of the men, the tournament is a chance to channel the competitive edge they honed on basketball courts and baseball diamonds as young athletes so many years ago.

But for many of the female athletes here, the Florida Senior Games and similar tournaments offer a competitive outlet they didn't have access to growing up.

These women are part of the pre-Title IX era. Born in the 1930s through '60s, they didn't enjoy the benefits the gender equity law laid out for future generations, including their daughters and granddaughters, when it passed in 1972.

Take Tina Rosenquist, 65. The avid pickleball player loved sports as a young girl, including playing football with her brothers. But when it came time for school sign-ups, she and other girls were left with few options. Tennis and track were available, but not much else.

"I enjoyed all sports, but I was supposed to be in the kitchen learning to cook," Rosenquist said. "That was our generation."

Kathy Vollmer's true passion was basketball. But Vollmer, 66, didn't have the chance to play in school. If she and other girls wanted to shoot hoops, they had to scrounge together their own match-ups.

"We had to do own thing and form our own games," Vollmer said of girls at the time. "There was nothing official. Title IX came about shortly after that."

The law changed everything for female athletes. That's why Rosenquist teared up when her daughter joined a girls hockey team in Minnesota many years later. Her daughter didn't quite understand the emotion, but to Rosenquist, it was a sign that things really had changed for the next generation.

"We women have worked so hard for equal gender in sports," Rosenquist said. "We set the stage for you."

Now, those same women are clinching championships through opportunities like the senior games.

For many, sports like pickleball are a way to stay active and also keep an active social life after retirement. Friendships form on courts and span state lines. But despite how courteous the play is-"nice shot" and "good one" echo frequently in the gym-the competition is real.

"In our heads we're 35, and our bodies just scream at us," Vollmer said.

These women never got to be athletes. Then came the Florida Senior Games.

For many women who attended school before Title IX became law in 1972, there were no athletic outlets. Now they're getting another chance at athletic glory thanks to the Florida Senior Games.

Villager continues her domination of Senior Games pickleball competitions

By Steve Day - December 7, 2018

Thursday marked the sixth day of the nine-day 2018 Florida Senior Games competitions.

Villager Deb Harrison won her eighth overall women's singles title in pickleball since 2005 in the 2018 Florida Senior Games.

It also was the first day of four that will involve pickleball competitions. All told, 343 athletes scheduled to participate in the popular sport.

Deb Harrison, of The Villages, won her eighth overall women's singles title since 2005 while participating in the 70-74 age group. On Monday and Tuesday, Harrison won table tennis and will participate in women's and mixed doubles pickleball competition.

Villagers Pauline Stropp and Donald Schadt lost in the final match of the 60-64 age group tennis mixed doubles. They were defeated 6-1, 6-1 by Jeff and Ann Winkler of St. Petersburg.

At the end of the day, several top athletes were feted, including 2017 Athlete of the Year C

Teel, a bowler from The Villages.

Villager takes home gold medal in men's doubles table tennis at Florida Senior Games

By Steve Day - December 5, 2018

Tuesday was a wet and cloudy day in Clearwater for Day Four of the Florida Senior Games.

Due to the weather, some of the golfers were still on the course at 5:15 p.m. when play was suspended for the day. Those not finished were scheduled to complete their rounds Wednesday.

All of the women golfers and a majority of the men were able to complete their rounds.

Tallahassee's Ed Hoover had the day's lowest score with a round of 74 in the men's 70-74 age group.

Deane Chickering

Nick Kent, of The Villages, was one stroke back. Kent won the gold medal in the 70-74 age group in both 2015 and 2016 but did not compete in 2017.

Sarasota's John Shultz, the 2009 Florida Senior Games Male Athlete of the Year, won the silver medal in the 80-84 age group of table tennis. It was his 26th consecutive win in the sport.

He also paired with The Villages' Deane Chickering to win their sixth men's doubles gold medal since 2008.

Wednesday features the second day of golf competition and Mixed Doubles Tennis at Innisbrook Resort and Golf Club.

Gulf Coast Games for Life return in 2019

By Staff Report

Posted Dec 29, 2018 at 4:10 PM

Updated Dec 29, 2018 at 4:10 PM

SARASOTA COUNTY — Registration is open for the 2019 Gulf Coast Games for Life, which are scheduled Feb. 2-10 at locations throughout Sarasota and Manatee counties.

The 30th annual Gulf Coast Games for Life is sponsored by Sarasota County Parks, Recreation and Natural Resources, Manatee County Parks and Natural Resources, and the City of North Port Parks and Recreation.

The 2019 Gulf Coast Games for Life events are open to amateur athletes 50 years and older as of Dec. 31, 2019. The games are a qualifying event for the Florida Senior Games State Competition. Events are held in a variety of sports, from bag toss (corn hole) to volleyball. Registration ends Jan. 18.

To register, visit scgov.net/parks or register by mail at Gulf Coast Games for Life, c/o Sarasota County Parks, Recreation and Natural Resources, Twin Lakes Park, 6700 Clark Road, Sarasota, FL 34241.

There is a one-time registration fee of $12, which includes an event T-shirt. Each event, including the first event, costs an additional $3. Events such as bowling and golf have additional facility fees.

The age divisions are: 50-54; 55-59; 60-64; 65-69; 70-74; 75-79; 80-84; 85-89 and 90-plus.

Medals are awarded to the top three athletes in each event, for each age category as first-, second- and third-place finishers. The top five athletes in each age category qualify to compete in the Florida Senior Games.

For more information, call the Sarasota County Contact Center at 941-861-5000

Area athletes shine at Florida Senior Games

By Paul Jenkins

Posted Dec 12, 2018 at 12:20 PM

Clermont swimmer Charlie Weatherbee had his eye on the record books when he traveled to Clearwater for the 2018 Florida Senior Games that wrapped up on Sunday.

The veteran swimmer didn't get those records, but he did manage to walk away with five gold medals and a silver medal.

Not bad for a guy who in October suffered his second heart attack.

"My times were really, really slow," Weatherbee said. "When I went to the pool on Sunday there were three events where I really thought I could break the record and I was not even close. But that's just my competitive attitude. I did the best I could and that's all I can ask.

"I always say that if you can't run, you walk. You just have to keep going."

Weatherbee, 86, won gold in the men's 85-89 200-yard freestyle in a time of 3:58.78, the 100-yard IM in 2:12.74, the 50-yard free in 45.05, the 100-yard freestyle in 1:47.03 and the 200-yard IM in 4:42.64. Weatherbee is the state record holder in the 200-yard IM. He picked up a silver medal in the 100-yard breaststroke in 2:36.58.

The Florida Senior Games served as a qualifier for the 2019 National Senior Games, which will be held in June 2019 in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

But Weatherbee is planning on skipping the national games because he instead wants to compete in the World Police & Fire Games next year in China.

Two local competitors who are already planning to make the trip to New Mexico next year are Richard Horsley and Ernie Machmer after the duo won the silver medal in the 55-59 men's doubles tennis event at the Games.

“We played better than we have in the past and we were lucky to get to the gold medal match,” Horsley said. “We were surprised to get there and we just played the best we could.”

The two, who often play on Saturday mornings at Lake-Sumter State College, are already focused on improving in time for the national tournament.

“The other team (in the gold medal match) were more aggressive at the net and in their strategy than we were,” Horsley said. “We’re just going to go back and train and work a little harder. This will be the first time I’ve been to a national tournament as a competitor. I’ve been as a coach and a referee, but not as a player. I’m really excited about it.”

Machmer also picked up a fourth-place finish in men’s singles while another member of their Saturday morning group, Sean Wright, placed fourth in men’s singles in the 60-64 age group.

There were plenty of other local athletes who put on a good show at the Games, including:

- Gordon Ralph of Lady Lake won the men’s 85-89 50-yard breaststroke in a time of 1:01.22, the 100-yard backstroke in 2:00.82, the 100-yard breaststroke in 2:19.83 and the 200-yard backstroke in 4:19.09. And that was all in one day. On the second day he added gold in the 50-yard backstroke in 31.31 and the 200-yard breaststroke in 5:07.74.
- Karen Panker of Lady Lake won the women’s 70-74 100-yard backstroke in 1:43.75 and was third in the 100-yard IM in 1:49.07 on the first day. On Day 2 she added a gold in the 200-yard IM in 4:08.69 and a bronze in the 100-yard free in 1:28.08. She added gold as part of the winning 200-yard freestyle relay and the winning 200-yard medley relay.
- Robert Heacock of Clermont won the men’s 65-69 100-yard backstroke in 1:08.10 and the 100-yard IM in 1:08.34 on the first day. On the second day he added a gold medal in the 50-yard backstroke in 31.31 and silver medals in the 50-yard freestyle with a time of 27.29 and the 100-yard free in 1:00.28.
- John Newman of Lady Lake took the silver medal in the men’s 60-64 100-yard IM in 1:14.50 on the first day and added a bronze medal in the 50-yard freestyle the second day.

- In archery, Gary Perigo of Groveland won a gold medal in men's barebow compound while Bob Bigler of Mount Dora and Thomas Dalton of Lady Lake each won the silver medals in men's barebow recurve. Linda Woody of Lady Lake earned the bronze medal in the women's compound release.

Villages swimmer Leech dominates Senior Games competition

By Steve Day - December 3, 2018

When Villages' swimming legend Nate Leech is entered into a meet, chances are he is in it.

This past weekend was no different.

At the 2018 Florida Senior Games in Clearwater/Pinellas County, the competition was strong but Leech was even stronger. In fact, the trio of Leech, George Schmidt (West Palm Beach), Rudy Vazmina (Sarasota) combined for 17 record-setting performances in the Florida Senior Games.

Games. And in the end, Leech finished on top, followed by Schmidt and Vazmina.

On the second day of competition at Clearwater Lawn Bowls and Shuffleboard Complex, Dc Greenlee, of The Villages, won his second gold medal of the weekend. Greenlee and fellow Villages resident Paul Ayotte took home the gold in their age group.

Athletes from throughout the Sunshine State are competing in the 2018 Florida Senior Games, which run through Sunday, Dec. 9 in Clearwater/Pinellas County.

Meanwhile, Carol Helfer, of The Villages, teamed with Lakeland's Linda Armstrong to win the 65-69 age group.

In bowling, Jerry Teel, of The Villages, and Summerfield's Ed Fentermacher took the gold in the men's 70-74 doubles. The pair fell just three pins short of the record of 1,311 set in by Villagers Dick Merrill and Samuel Anzalone.
